Cassie Walters knew all about Bret Parker's image as a womanizing power broker, but when she replaced her sick employee as butler at one of Bret's glamorous parties, she was mesmerized by the dangerously appealing charmer--and he was spellbound by her! Exchanging wayward gazes all night long, Cassie and Bret fought the siren call of desire that crackled between them like heat lightning, but at night's end nothing could stop him from pulling her into his arms and savoring the sweet danger of her lips. Stunned by the speed of her surrender, Cassie struggled to reclaim her senses, but Bret's pursuit was relentless... and so seductive it made her wonder at her loner's life, her fear of putting down roots. Caring for a man who demanded a place inside her heart was everything Cassie feared. Could Bret teach her she was brave enough to risk loving him?
